

COLLEGIATE ATHLETIC INFORMATION

NCAA—National Collegiate Athletic Association

www.ncaa.org

This site contains much valuable information for the potential collegiate athlete including eligibility requirements for NCAA Division I, II, and III schools.

NJCAA—National Junior College Athletic Association

<https://www.njcaa.org/landing/index>

NJCAA provides opportunities for student athletes to continue their athletic careers. The NJCAA is divided into three divisions just like the NCAA. Two year community and junior colleges are members of the NJCAA. After completing eligibility, a student athlete may choose to continue their academic and athletic career at an NCAA or NAIA school.

NCAA/NJCAA Eligibility Center

www.eligibilitycenter.org

This site gives you the tools and information that you need to begin your collegiate athletic career. Use this site to register for eligibility.

NAIA—National Associate of Intercollegiate Athletics

www.naia.org

This site contains much valuable information for the potential collegiate athlete including eligibility requirements for Division I, II, and III NAIA schools. Some small, private colleges and universities have chosen to be members of this athletic organization.

NAIA Eligibility Center

www.playnaia.org

This site gives you the tools and information that you need to begin your collegiate athletic career at an NAIA school. Use this site to register for eligibility.